

Dedication Page

This book is dedicated to Chester Yeary Sr. who passed away June 30, 2004. Thanks for believing in your sons and sticking around to see us grow into men. You taught us to do the best we could, to always find a way to get things done, and to never make excuses. We had a true father, not just a sperm donor... love you dad.

“I’m like a bad check... I always bounce back!”
